

Realty Executives Stimulus Package

Given the state of the United States economy, Shawn Cunniff of Realty Executives Prestige Properties is offering his own stimulus package to you in an attempt to offer relief in your busy life for doing a good deed for another.

For a limited time, if you refer a family member, friend, colleague or your own business customers and clients in your industry to Shawn Cunniff before June 30th 2009 you will receive relief through our stimulus package. If you know someone that is looking to buy or sell their home anywhere in Massachusetts and refer them to Shawn today, you will receive any one of the following packages for such consideration.

- A Cruise Vacation for 2 to the Bahamas

(5 day package cruise)

- 2 Airline tickets to anywhere in the Continental U.S.

(Certain restrictions may apply, contact Shawn for more details. Blackout dates may apply.)

- Red Sox Club Seats & Dinner for 2 people at Fenway Park

(Certain restrictions may apply, contact Shawn for more details. Some game restrictions do apply.)

Shawn Cunniff and Realty Executives are dedicated to providing outstanding service their customers and clients every day. Shawn has been an active real estate executive professional for over 10 years. He cares about his clients and wants the absolute best experience for them in their pursuit of buying or selling their home. This stimulus package is designed to give back and say thank you for considering him with everyone that you know looking for a real estate professional.

This stimulus package is good for all your referrals through June 30th 2009. If you know and refer 3 individuals before June 30th, you will receive 3 of the packages offered. To qualify in receiving the packages, you must notify Shawn with the prospective individuals name by June 30th 2009 and they must have a complete closed transaction.

Closed transactions do not need to happen before June 30th.
